HBH Lower Level Classroom

Rated PG-13, 1 hr. 38 min. Directed By: Stephen Frears
Based on the 2009 investigative book by BBC correspondent Martin Sixsmith, The Lost Child of Philomena Lee, PHILOMENA focuses on the efforts of Philomena Lee, mother to a boy conceived out of wedlock - something her Irish-Catholic community didn't have the highest opinion of - and given away for adoption in the United States. In following church doctrine, she was forced to sign a contract that wouldn't allow for any sort of inquiry into the son's whereabouts. After starting a family years later in England and, for the most part, moving on with her life, Lee meets Sixsmith, a BBC reporter with whom she decides to discover her long-lost son.~ Rovi

Cast: Judi Dench, Steve Coogan, Sophie Kennedy Clark, Anna Maxwell Martin, Ruth McCabe, Barbara Jefford

Saving Mr. Banks
Aug. 12, @ Noon ~
WAMC Community Room (Up Stairs)
Or
Aug. 13, @ 1 PM
HBH Lower Level Classroom

Rated PG-13, 2 hr., Directed By: John Lee Hancock
Disney's "Saving Mr. Banks," inspired by the extraordinary, untold backstory of how Disney's classic "Mary Poppins" made it to the screen. When Walt Disney's daughters begged him to make a movie of their favorite book, P.L. Travers' "Mary Poppins," he made them a promise-one that he didn't realize would take 20 years to keep. In his quest to obtain the rights, Walt comes up against a curmudgeonly, uncompromising writer who has absolutely no intention of letting her beloved magical nanny get mauled by the Hollywood machine. Travers reluctantly agrees to go to Los Angeles to hear Disney's plans for the adaptation. Armed with imaginative storyboards and chirpy songs from the talented Sherman brothers, Walt launches an all-out onslaught on P.L. Travers, but the prickly author doesn't budge. It is only when he reaches into his own childhood that Walt discovers the truth about the ghosts that haunt her, and together they set Mary Poppins free to ultimately make one of the most endearing films in cinematic history. Inspired by true events, "Saving Mr. Banks" is the extraordinary, untold story of how Disney's classic "Mary Poppins" made it to the screen-and the testy relationship that the legendary Walt Disney had with author P.L. Travers that almost derailed it.~ Rovi

Cast: Emma Thompson, Tom Hanks, Colin Farrell, Bradley Whitford, Paul Giamatti

Thought for the Day: "It's not what you put on the table, but who you put in the chairs, that makes a successful dinner party."

LOST IN THE FIFTIES!

A little house with three bedrooms and one car on the street, a mower that you had to push to make the grass look neat. In the kitchen on the wall we only had one phone, no need for recording things, someone was always home. We had a living room where we would congregate, unless it was meal time, then, in the kitchens where we ate. We had no need for family rooms or extra rooms to dine, when meeting as a family just one room would work out fine. We only had one TV set, and maybe two channels but always there was one of them with something worth the view.

For snacks we had potato chips that tasted like a chip, and if you wanted flavor there was Lipton's onion dip. Store-bought snacks were rare because my mother liked to cook, and nothing can compare to snacks from Betty Crocker's book.

Week-ends were for family trips or staying home to play, we all did things together --- even going to church to pray. When we did our weekend trips, depending on the weather, no one stayed at home because we liked to be together. Sometimes we did do separate things on our own, but we knew where the others were, without our own cell phone. Then there were the movies with your favorite movie star, and nothing can compare to watching movies from your car. And there were the picnics at the peak of summer season— pack a lunch and find some trees and never need a reason. Get a baseball game together with all the friends you know, and have real action playing ball --- no video games. Remember when the doctor used to be the family friend, and didn't need insurance or a lawyer to defend them? The way he took care of you or what he had to do, because he took an oath and strived to do the best for you. Remember going to the store when the sky is oh so sunny, and when you paid for what you got you used your very own money! Nothing you had to swipe or punch or put in the amount and you had a friendly cashier that actually could count! The milkman went from door to door, for just a few cents more that a trip to the store. The mail was delivered right to your door, without the junk mail that we all deplore.

There was a time when just one glance was all that it would take, and you would know the kind of car, the model and the make. They didn't look like turtles trying to squeeze out every mile, they were streamlined, white walls, fins, and really had some style. One time the music that you played was from a vinyl, big-holed disc they called a forty-five. The record player had a post to keep them all in line, and then the records would drop down and play one at a time. Oh sure, we had our problems then, just like we do today, as always we were striving to find a better way. But how the simple lives we led, still seems like so much fun, when the only way to explain a game was to kick the can and run. And why would boys put baseball cards between bicycle spokes and for a nickel those red machines had little bottled cokes. That time seemed so much easier and slower in some ways, yes I love the new technology but I really miss those days. So time moves on and so do we, and nothing stays the same, but I love to reminisce and walk down memory lane.

"Be who you are and say what you feel; those who mind don't matter, and those who matter – don't mind at all.”

Pageant of the Masters ~ Wednesday, July 16, 2014 ~ Family and Friends Welcome

The Laguna Pageant of the Masters is the Festival of Arts’ crowning jewel and arguably one of the most unique productions in the entire world. Your tour begins with a drive down to Picturesque Laguna Beach. Your admission includes entrance to the Festival of the Arts where local artisans display their works, and you’ll have reserved seats for the evening performance of “The Pageant of the Masters.” You will have plenty of free time at the Festival to enjoy the arts & crafts booths and dinner (on your own) and then view the Pageant of the Masters from your Main Tier Center seats at the 8:30 pm performance. It is world-renowned in the artistry and theatrical illusion of living pictures. Each night during the summer season the Festival of Arts presents this famous attraction. What is the Pageant? It is ninety-minutes of “living pictures” – incredibly faithful art re-creations of classical and contemporary works with real people posing to look exactly like their counterparts in the original pieces. An outdoor amphitheater, professional orchestra, original score, live narration, intricate sets, sophisticated lighting, expert staff, and hundreds of dedicated volunteers have won recognition for the Pageant as the best presentation of its kind. This year’s theme is “The Art Detective.” Everyone loves a good mystery, especially in the world of art. You don’t have to be Sherlock Holmes to figure out whodunit when The Art Detective, the 2014 Pageant of the Masters, is on the case. The Festival of Art’s world famous theatrical celebration of art in tableaux vivants – “living pictures” – will reveal how lost treasures were discovered, where crimes of passion were uncovered (or covered up) and how creative riddles were unraveled, with a gallery of the world’s great masterpieces providing the clues! The stories and revelations are sure to provide fun for the whole family and be anything but elementary. The Sawdust Festival is also held at the same time and is located a short walk from the Festival of Arts. At the Sawdust Festival you’ll find a wide variety of handicraft booths selling reasonably priced jewelry, pottery, art, cloths, and food. There is a small admission charge for the Sawdust Festival. Trip includes: Deluxe round trip motor coach transportation, a picturesque drive to Laguna Beach, reserved seats for the Pageant, driver gratuity & itineraries.
